A Message from the President

Hope everyone has been enjoying the lovely weather!

School is in session and here is information from PennDot.

In Pennsylvania, it is illegal to pass a school bus when its red lights are flashing and stop arm is extended. If convicted of breaking this law, you could get a $250 fine, five points on your driving record, and a 60-day suspension of your license. In 2016, 730 motorists were convicted for breaking the state's School Bus Stopping Law.

As part of the law, motorists are required to stop at least 10 feet away when behind the bus, meeting the bus, or approaching an intersection where a bus is stopped. Motorists following or traveling alongside a school bus must also stop until the red lights have stopped flashing, the stop arm is withdrawn, and all children have reached safety. It's important to note that if physical barriers such as grassy medians, guide rails, or concrete median barriers separate oncoming traffic from the bus, motorists in the opposing lanes may proceed without stopping.

Your President,
Mary Jo Phillips
Minutes August 11, 2019

On August 11, 2019 at 6:00 p.m., the meeting was called to order by President Mary Jo Phillips, following the Pledge of Allegiance.

Members Remember: Worst and Best

Accompanying the last newsletter, I asked you, the readers, three questions about cars you have owned and still can't get over for one reason or another. I had a couple submission come in, but I would love to post more in my last few editions as Editor. Feel free to send me your worst and best at nhhacnews@yahoo.com

Responses by: Bob Otto

The least favorite car you have ever owned.
1980 VW Rabbit

The most reliable car you have ever owned.
1989 Toyota Extended Cab Pickup, which he notes just turned over 100,000 miles.

The car you have always wanted, but never got to own.
1954 Chrysler Imperial Newport
2dr Hardtop with wire wheels

The car that was most fun to drive.
1971 VW Squareback (manual, of course!)

Bob's Addition: The car with the most charm.
purchased from my Uncle Elmer with 7,000 miles on it - 1960 Rambler American - manual shift - I miss its simplicity. No automatic heating system. In the winter you pulled out the knob and forgot about it until spring. In the spring you pushed in the knob and forgot about it until winter.
